Exercises in Honor of Students Who Were Killed at Britle of New Market. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Lexington, Va., May 16.—The anniversary of the battle of New Market was observed to-day at the Virginia Military Institute by suspension of academic duties. Forty-six years ago the boy battalion of the school took active part in that battle, and gained everlasting fame by charging and capturing a Federal battery. Memorial exercises were observed at the cadet cemetery this afternoon, where seven of the boy heroes are buried.

The cadets returned yesterday from their seven-days' fike to Staunton, and all were in fine fettle after their tiresome march.

NEGRO CUT TO DEATH.

Fatal Encounter Occurs While Party is Returning From Fish Fry.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Raleigh, N. C., May 16.—Late last night, near Garner, this county, Pearl Jones, colored, was cut to death by Hubert Bryant, a well known young white man. Quite a party of men were returning to Garner from a big fish fry, and they became involved in a quarrel about Jones, who was cook at the "fry." Bryant's friends claim that Jones was trying to pull Bryant out of his buggy, when Bryant drew his knife, and dealt the fatal cut in the abdomen. Since the cutting Bryant has disappeared. Bryant is a brother of Henry Bryant, a well known merchant and farmer of Garner.
